

29 January 1964

REPLY TO

ATTN OF: SQ SURGEON

SUBJECT: Monthly Activities Report for January 1964

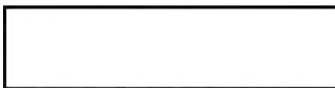

TO: Commander
WRSP-IV

1. The general health of the squadron remained good throughout the reporting period. Several sporadic cases of influenza appeared. The minor epidemic of the common cold persisted.
2. There were 38 outpatient visits to the squadron surgeon during the month of January. Patient breakdown is as follows:

3. Fifty-six (56) routine immunizations were given to date. Program underway to have all persons up to date by 28 February 1964.
4. Hospitalizations: [redacted] admitted to March AFB 28 Jan 64 for PEB evaluation (Retirement from active duty).
5. DNIF: [redacted] Jan to present - Common cold.
6. Personnel:
 - a. [redacted] was on leave 16 through 23 January. Duties covered by [redacted]
 - b. Program for training of detachment Personal Equipment Technician under study.

- d. Medical technician slot remains vacant. Request some positive action be taken in obtaining this technician or medical section will be incapacitated by any unusual staging requirements.
- 7. Equipment - The Medical - PE Van continues to be in development phase.
- 8. Other:
 - ✓ a. No further progress in the aircraft escape system problem. We await action by LAC.
 - b. Plan meeting on prebreathing requirements for February with Headquarters Aerospace Medical consultant.
 - c. System established to maintain individual crew control records for drivers.

Squadron Surgeon

STATINTL